

TWENTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 1844.

SENATE.

Mr. EVANS presented a petition from the heirs of some one (name not heard) for a commutation of half pay; referred to the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions.

Mr. CLAYTON, the proceedings of a Democratic meeting in Wilmington, Delaware, in favor, as they say, of the re-annexation of Texas to the United States.

At the desire of Mr. SEVER, the papers were read.

Mr. HAYWOOD, a petition from Mecklenburg, North Carolina, to the same effect.

Mr. BUCHANAN, one from the 3d Congressional District of Pennsylvania, asking the Senate to ratify the treaty for the annexation of Texas; and, if this cannot be done, then that, by legislative action of both Houses, Texas may be received as a territory of the United States. Also, a protest of citizens of Washington county, Pennsylvania, against the annexation of Texas.

Mr. WRIGHT, memorials from Onondaga and Ontario counties, New York, renouncing against the annexation of Texas. Also, a petition of W. E. V., who states that he has invented a boat for the removal of alluvial bars from the channels of harbors and rivers.

Mr. CHOATE, in the absence of his colleague, presented a memorial from the town of Springfield, Massachusetts, on the subject of the boundary line between that town and lands of the United States.

Mr. WALKER presented a letter and accompanying papers from New York on the subject of further legislation in reference to private claims; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

The several bills, which were yesterday ordered for engrossment, were taken up and passed.

It was suggested, that as the Senate was thin, the Private Calendar should be acted upon alone; but, upon further consideration, a motion prevailed that when the Senate adjourned, it should do so to meet on Friday, and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. J. E. MORRIS submitted a resolution that sundry memorials contesting the right of the Delegate from Florida, Mr. Levy, to a seat in the House, be taken from the Speaker's table and referred to the Committee on Elections.

The resolution was objected to, but Mr. LEVY desired that it might not be, and also wished to inquire of Mr. MORRIS if this movement on his part, was at the instance of any of his (Mr. Levy's) constituents. Mr. M. had no objection to answering, but Mr. CAVE JOHNSON objected to any questions or replies.

A resolution was then submitted that all debate should cease on the tariff bill on Wednesday the 8th of May; an amendment was made substituting Monday, at 2 o'clock, and the previous question was moved.

After some difficulty in getting a quorum, the preliminary questions were disposed of, and the yeas and nays called on the amendment, and it was lost—yeas 38, noes 101. The resolution was then agreed to.

A resolution was submitted, and adopted, assigning the three first legislative days, after the tariff bill is disposed of, to the business of the District.

The House then resolved itself into Committee of the Whole, Mr. HOPKINS, of Va., in the Chair, and Mr. BIDLACK, of Pa., addressed the committee in defence of the interests of Pennsylvania as affected by the proposed tariff.

Mr. BUFFINGTON, of the same State, but of opposite politics, (being a good Whig,) followed on the same side, and made a speech replete with solid, argumentative, reason.

Mr. HUBBARD, of Va., set out with promising a common sense speech, but his very first proposition was at variance with this pledge, inasmuch as he laid it down that the periods of greatest prosperity had been those when the low tariffs were in operation.

Mr. GRINNELL, of Mass. (brother of Moses Grinnell, of New York) next addressed the Committee in a very sensible speech, showing the beneficial tendencies of salutary legislation upon commerce.

Mr. DUNLAP, of Maine, made a studied speech, which was chiefly devoted to an exposition of his own views of political economy.

The discussion was continued upon the bill until the House adjourned.

SANDS'S CELEBRATED SARSAPARILLA.—This excellent compound, which is creating such a universal interest in the country, has fairly and triumphantly made its way into the favor of our citizens throughout the length and breadth of our country, won by its own intrinsic virtues. We have read again and again of the efficacy of this invaluable medicine—but not until recently have we had any positive proof from facts which could induce us to speak fairly of it. But, from facts in our possession, we are now well convinced that, without any exception, it is the safest, pleasantest, and best compound ever offered to the public for the cure of chronic diseases, rheumatism, scrofula, and all impurities of the blood, together with many other complaints. The present is the proper season to clear the blood and system from all impurities, and we can not do our readers a greater favor than by recommending them to use freely and at once this invaluable compound.

For certificates, and numerous testimonials, see pamphlets and various papers. Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, by A. B. & D. SANDS, Wholesale Druggists, 79 Fulton st., New York.

Agents for Washington city:—ROBERT FARNHAM, Bookseller, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and 11th street, and R. S. PATTERSON, Druggist, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and 9th street.

Price $1 per bottle; 6 bottles for $5.

READ IT.—To be sick is no longer a misfortune, but a fault. Has any man a headache? Peters' Cordial Lozenges will cure him in a few minutes. Is any one troubled with a hacking cough, which may end in consumption? In Peters' Cough Lozenges he may find almost immediate relief. Worms kill many children. They can neither kill nor hurt a child who is physicked with Peters' Worm Lozenges. Hence we may well conclude as we began, that to be sick is no longer a misfortune, but a fault. We say to all, go at once and procure some of these famous Lozenges, at LOCAL NEWS.

MUSICAL.—We had almost neglected to notice the first concert of the "Washington Musical Society," which took place at Concert Hall on Monday evening last. This is a young society, associated together for the laudable purpose of cultivating a knowledge and taste for the higher branches of vocal music. The first essay was anything but encouraging, there being plenty of elbow-room for the audience—this may be partially accounted for in the great political attraction at Carusi's, and the want of proper exertion on the part of the members. However, the few who were present expressed their great gratification at the performance, which went off smoothly, though not without defects. The choruses, generally, were well sung, though not so full as we were led to believe they would have been. The Grand Hallelujah, and Hallelujah to the Father, were the gems of the evening; and the tenor solo, of "Comfort ye my People," was finely executed. The young debutante who sang "Eve's Lamentation," bids fair to become an excellent vocalist, though she appears to be deficient in that softness and expression so requisite to the plaintive song of Eve.

The public, it is to be hoped, will extend a fostering hand to this Society, and not let it follow the fate of others of the same stamp that have been, at various periods, established and sustained by the best musical talent of the city. Heretofore no association has ventured beyond a common anthem; the society at present in existence has boldly taken hold of the complicated works of Handel, Haydn, Beethoven, Mozart, &c., and will, if properly encouraged, produce the entire oratorios of the master spirits of the musical arena. The concert, we understand, is to be repeated on Saturday evening next. Let the hall be crowded by those who can appreciate the sublime works of the great masters.

We acknowledge the receipt from the Fair ladies of what Corporal Streeter, of the Richmond Star, (a connoisseur in such matters,) would call "a fair allowance of goodies;" for which they will accept our thanks, together with our best wishes for the accomplishment of the laudable enterprise for which they are associated.

BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

THE NOMINATIONS.

The Baltimore Patriot of yesterday evening contains the proceedings of the Whig Convention of Nomination. Hon. AMBROSE SPENCER, of New York, was chosen President, and a Vice President was chosen from each State.

Mr. LEIGH, of Virginia, then rose and made an address to the Convention, in which he stated that the voice of the whole Whig party of the country was so decided in favor of a certain individual for the Presidency, that it would be unnecessary to go through the usual forms of a nomination. He then offered a resolution declaring

HENRY CLAY, OF KENTUCKY, to be unanimously chosen as the Whig candidate for the Presidency of the United States, and that he be recommended to the people as such.

The resolution was adopted by acclamation, and was accompanied by a great many rounds of applause. The cheering and bravos were continued for a great length of time.

A letter from George Evans, Esq., of Maine, was read by Mr. Brownson of that State, in which Mr. E. declines being considered a candidate for nomination for Vice President.

Mr. Ridgely, of Delaware, read a letter from John M. Clayton, of that State, also withdrawing his name from the list of persons proposed as candidates for the Vice Presidency.

Mr. Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland, read a letter from the Hon. Mr. McLean, of Ohio, declining to be considered a candidate for the nomination for the Vice Presidency.

Mr. Johnson, of Maryland, offered a resolution providing that the list of delegates be read over, and that each delegate, when his name is called, declare viva voce which he is in favor of, as the candidate for Vice President, and that a majority of the whole number of delegates be necessary to a choice.

Mr. Johnson's resolution was adopted, and the names of the following gentlemen were placed before the Convention, as candidates for the nomination.

MILLARD FILLMORE, of New York, by Mr. Root, of New York; JOHN DAVIS, of Massachusetts, by Mr. Storer, of Ohio; THEODORE FRELINGHUYSEN, by Mr. Green, of New Jersey; JOHN SERGEANT, of Pennsylvania, by ———.

At this point of the proceedings, the Patriot stops, being compelled to go to press, but adds, in a postscript, that

THEODORE FRELINGHUYSEN, OF NEW JERSEY, has been nominated for Vice President.

ALARMING NEWS.—A MASSACRE.—The Charleston Mercury publishes a letter, dated St. Thomas, April 14th, which contains this painful intelligence:

"St. Domingo is in a disorganized state. The Spanish part has revolted against the Port au Prince Government. By steamer yesterday from Leeward, we hear that the negroes have broken into Aux Cayes and murdered the whites and colored—that the President, Herard, is killed—400 persons have taken refuge in Jamaica. In Port au Prince a similar attempt as at Aux Cayes was hourly apprehended."
